Outline

- EAGLE Strategy for DOLs
- “The Goodness of EAGLE”
- EAGLE Competition
- EAGLE Task Order Status
- EAGLE Execution Challenges
- Lessons Learned

EAGLE Strategy for DOLs

- Task Order Solicitations will be issued for a single DOL -
 - For Supply, Maintenance, and Transportation Support Services
 - Resulting in “One” Logistics Provider Prime Contractor – Requirements Task Order
 - Competed among qualified BOA Holders
 - CONUS requirements with annual value >$35.5M, All BOA holders
 - CONUS requirements with annual value ≤$35.5M, SB BOA holders
 - CONUS requirements previously 8(a) set-aside, remain 8(a) set-aside
 - OCONUS requirements, All BOA holders
 - Task Order awards will typically have a single year base period with 4-one year option periods

“The Goodness of EAGLE”

- Multi-step EAGLE process allows for BOA Contractor On-ramp
 - Annual Requirements
 - Emergent Requirements
- Expanded Competition
 - Not limited to finite contractor pool size
- Expansive Role for Small Business
 - As Prime Contractor
 - As Subcontractor or Teammate
- Iterative process
 - Allows for lessons learned to be incorporated into follow-on competitions
 - Intent to streamline acquisition process
- DOL 5-year Requirements Task Order
 - Provides constant workload for successful offeror

EAGLE Competition

- A BOA is not a contract
 - Receiving an executed BOA does NOT guarantee a task order award.
 - An Offeror must be a qualified BOA holder as of the closing date of a task order solicitation in order to be eligible to submit a proposal to a task order competition.
 - The Task Order is the binding contract – not the BOA
- Task Order Competitions
 - Currently 112 BOA Holders (64 SB/22 8(a)/48LB)
 - BOA Holders compete for task order award among BOA Holders
 - Unrestricted – compete among 112 BOA Holders
 - SBSA – compete among 64 BOA Holders
 - 8(a) – compete among 22 BOA Holders
 - Only one “Requirements” task order/contract award will be executed per DOL
 - Task Order awards are typically 5 year contracts.

EAGLE Execution Challenges

- Task Order Execution Timeline – Why it is taking longer than anticipated?
 - Large volume of proposals (double digits)
 - Learning Curve
 - Sequestration
 - Multiple Amendments and Extended Closing dates
 - High volume of industry questions that require technical research
 - Average # of questions per solicitation: 245
 - Questions result in numerous workload and PWS changes that require technical re-write of documents

EAGLE Lessons Learned

What you can do to help us

- BOA RFP:
 - Read and understand the RFP, specifically Sections L and M, in its entirety, and ensure the proposal is submitted in accordance with those instructions. Please pay close attention to the Instructions for Attachment 0002, EAGLE Organizational Capability and Similar Experience Worksheet, and follow them precisely.
 - Past performance information submitted in response to a BOA Step 2 RFP will be used in the Step 3 task order competitions. Ensure any information provided for past performance is consistent and accurate throughout your proposal.
- Task Order RFP:
 - Adhere to proposal page limit and format instructions
 - Ensure submittal of required cost data for cost/price proposal (Prime and Subcontractors)
 - Utilizing BOA past performance references for task order evaluation – no need for submittal of additional references
 - Ensure Contract Numbers and POCs provided for additional Past Performance information are correct
- Submit questions regarding the instructions provided in the BOA or task order RFPs to the EAGLE mailbox at usarmy.RIA.acc.mbx.eagle@mail.mil in a timely manner.
