

U.S. Army Mission and Installation Contracting Command Brigadier General Kirk F. Vollmecke Commanding General

Brigadier General Kirk F. Vollmecke assumed command of the Mission and Installation Contracting Command, Fort Sam Houston, Texas, on March 28, 2012. The MICC, a subordinate command to the U.S. Army Contracting Command, provides contracting support for the warfighter through more than 1,300 Soldiers and Army civilians at 40 installation contracting offices located throughout the nation. Known for premiere and timely contracting support, practices and oversight, the MICC provides Army commands, installations and activities with responsive contracting solutions and oversight.

He was commissioned a second lieutenant in May 1984 through ROTC as a distinguished military graduate of the Centre College of Kentucky, where he earned a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Economics and Management. Brigadier General Vollmecke graduated from the Naval Postgraduate School in 1992 where he earned a Master of Science Degree in Management with a concentration in Acquisition and Contracting Management. He is a 1999 graduate of the U.S. Army Command and General Staff College where he was awarded the first Hite Acquisition Award for Excellence. In 2004, he earned a Master of Science Degree in Strategic Studies from the U.S. Army War College. Brigadier General Vollmecke is Acquisition Level III certified in Contracting and Program Management. He is a Certified Professional Contract Manager and a member of the National Contract Management Association.

Brigadier General Vollmecke's acquisition assignments include director for contracting and the deputy to the Deputy Assistant Secretary of the Army with the Office of the Assistant Secretary of the Army for Acquisition, Logistics and Technology; Capabilities and Acquisition Division chief for the J-8/Joint Staff; commander, Defense Contract Management Agency Iraq/Afghanistan; Senior Headquarters Department of the Army systems analyst for the Future Combat Systems (Brigade Combat Team) Program and Assistant Secretary of the Army AL&T; commander of the DCMA Boeing Philadelphia Plant; program analyst for the Deputy Chief of Staff of the Army for Programs, Program Analysis and Evaluation Directorate; assistant product manager M2/M3 for the Bradley Fighting Vehicle Systems Project Office; a contingency contracting officer assigned to the U.S. Army Forces Central Command-Saudi Arabia; and a weapon system procuring contracting officer assigned to the Army Materiel Command's Communications-Electronics Command. Prior to joining the Army Acquisition Corps in 1991, he served in a variety of infantry command and staff positions.

Brigadier General Vollmecke's awards and decorations include the Defense Superior Service Medal, Legion of Merit, Bronze Star Medal, Defense Meritorious Service Medal, Meritorious Service Medal with seven oak leaf clusters, Joint Commendation Medal, Army Commendation Medal, and the Army Achievement Medal with four oak clusters. He is also authorized to wear the Joint Chiefs of Staff Identification Badge, Army Staff Identification Badge, Expert Infantryman's Badge, Airborne Badge and Ranger Tab.

Current as of June 13, 2012