

Biography

Department of the Army

George M. Cabaniss, Jr.
Deputy to the Commander
U.S. Army Mission and Installation Contracting
Command
Fort Sam Houston, Texas

As Deputy to the Commanding General, responsible for leading the people and managing the resources of the U.S. Army Mission and Installation Contracting Command (MICC). The MICC provides contracting support for the warfighter through seven Mission Contracting Centers, nine Mission Contracting Offices and 28 Installation Contracting Offices located throughout the Continental United States. The Centers and Offices provide major Army commands and other customers with a wide-variety of contracting support to include soldier recruitment and training, troop deployments, family and soldier well-being, weapon system sustainment, base operations, and installation and infrastructure readiness.

CAREER CHRONOLOGY:

- Apr 2008 – Dec 2011, Chief of the Contracting Office, Aberdeen Contracting Division, Army Contracting Command – Aberdeen Proving Ground.
- Apr 2006 – Apr 2008, Deputy Director of Contracts, Superintendent of Shipbuilding Gulf Coast
- Oct 2004 – Apr 2006, Chief, Contracting Division, Region 10, Federal Technology Service, General Services Administration
- Apr 2000 – Oct 2004, Procuring Contracting Officer, Naval Aviation Systems Command – Orlando
- Apr 1993 – Apr 2000, private law practice in Atlanta, GA

COLLEGE:

- Juris Doctor, Florida State University College of Law, Tallahassee, FL, 1992
- Masters in Public Administration, Golden Gate University, Tampa, FL, 1982
- Bachelor of Arts, Ambassador College, Pasadena, CA, 1976

CERTIFICATIONS:

- Licensed to practice law in the states of Florida, Georgia and Washington
- Level III Army Acquisition Corps for Contracting